Reference: Tab H, Customer Perceptions of Agency Personnel Policy Development, H-1

"Initiatives in personnel management are often taken in CIA by people other than the Director of Personnel. An outstanding example are those km inspired by the then DCI that led, through recommendations of a Personnel Advisory Study Group (PASG) report, to an effort still underway called "New Approaches to Personnel Management.""

Comment

Reference: Tab H, Customer Perceptions of Agency Personnel Policy Development, H-4.

"(The Careers Committee will meet periodically)..to assign study projects. The first such are directed at realizing the PASG objective of more inter-Directorate transfers as well as providing better job counselling and career guidance."

Comment